

Lexis.com

Lexis.com is your portal to jurisprudence documents, legal cases, annotations, commentary and key analyses/visions on international court procedures. Our user-friendly interface will quickly lead you to the information you need. Get the facts on due diligence, security law, mergers & acquisitions, criminal law, taxes, healthcare, environmental issues, transfer pricing and social security, from international legislation and regulations as well as general news sources and business information.

Get highly relevant, in-depth answers—exactly when you need them.

A Validate the authority of your case with Shepard's® Citations Service, the only citations service with a full range of editorial analysis including true positive and questioned by.

Citations Service, the only citations service with a full range of editorial analysis including true positive and questioned by.

B Find relevant cases quickly with LexisNexis® Case Summaries, which include Procedural Posture, Overview and Outcome.

which include Procedural Posture, Overview and Outcome.

C Review the main points of law—in the court's own language with LexisNexis® headnotes. Then use the More Like This Headnote feature to focus on the terms of art or key words in a particular headnote. Find more cases with similar headnotes or with closely matching language in the opinions.

Then use the More Like This Headnote feature to focus on the terms of art or key words in a particular headnote. Find more cases with similar headnotes or with closely matching language in the opinions.

The screenshot displays the Lexis.com interface for a case titled "TITLE INSURANCE COMPANY OF MINNESOTA, Plaintiff and Respondent, v. STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION, Defendant and Appellant." The interface includes a search bar at the top, a left sidebar with navigation options like "Related Content" and "Docket History", and a main content area. A red circle 'A' is placed over the "More Like This" link in the search results. A red circle 'B' is placed over the "CASE SUMMARY" section, which contains a "PROCEDURAL POSTURE" and "OUTCOME" summary. A red circle 'C' is placed over the "LEXISNEXIS® HEADNOTES" section, which provides a summary of the court's holding and the legal issues involved.

Sources you trust.

Features that make research simple and comprehensive.

D Uncover more with just one case-law search using LexisNexis® Related Content, and eliminate the need to conduct additional searches. This feature surfaces rich editorial content you may not have realized was available at lexis.com®, with exclusive price transparency messages for out-of-subscription content.

E Speed your research with custom subtabs on your lexis.com home screen. These subtabs pull all of your jurisdiction and practice area sources—including laws, statutes, forms and more—into one easy reference spot.

Get in touch

To find out more about LexisNexis.com and how LexisNexis can help your business:

+27 (11) 245 6539/41/45/61 | ios@lexisnexis.co.za | www.lexisnexis.co.za