ACT

To provide for the strengthening of measures to prevent and combat corruption and corrupt activities; to provide for the offence of corruption and offences relating to corrupt activities; to provide for investigative measures in respect of corruption and related corrupt activities; to provide for the establishment and endorsement of a Register in order to place certain restrictions on persons and enterprises convicted of corrupt activities relating to tenders and contracts; to place a duty on certain persons holding a position of authority to report certain corrupt transactions; to provide for extraterritorial jurisdiction in respect of the offence of corruption and offences relating to corrupt activities; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

Preamble.—WHEREAS the Constitution enshrines the rights of all people in the Republic and affirms the democratic values of human dignity, equality and freedom;

AND WHEREAS the Constitution places a duty on the State to respect, protect, promote and fulfil all the rights as enshrined in the Bill of Rights;

AND WHEREAS corruption and related corrupt activities undermine the said rights, endanger the stability and security of societies, undermine the institutions and values of democracy and ethical values and morality, jeopardise sustainable development, the rule of law and the credibility of governments, and provide a breeding ground for organised crime;

AND WHEREAS the illicit acquisition of personal wealth can be particularly damaging to democratic institutions, national economies, ethical values and the rule of law;

AND WHEREAS there are links between corrupt activities and other forms of crime, in particular organised crime and economic crime, including money-laundering;

AND WHEREAS corruption is a transnational phenomenon that crosses national borders and affects all societies and economies, and is equally destructive and reprehensible within both the public and private spheres of life, so that regional and international cooperation is essential to prevent and control corruption and related corrupt activities;

AND WHEREAS a comprehensive, integrated and multidisciplinary approach is required to prevent and combat corruption and related corrupt activities efficiently and effectively;

AND WHEREAS the availability of technical assistance can play an important role in enhancing the ability of States, including by strengthening capacity and by institution-building, to prevent and combat corruption and related corrupt activities efficiently and effectively;

AND WHEREAS the prevention and combating of corruption and related corrupt activities is a responsibility of all States requiring mutual cooperation, with the support and involvement of individuals and groups outside the public sector, such as organs of civil society and non-governmental and community-based organisations, if their efforts in this area are to be efficient and effective;

AND WHEREAS the United Nations has adopted various resolutions condemning all corrupt practices, and urged member states to take effective and concrete action to combat all forms of corruption and related corrupt practices;

AND WHEREAS the Southern African Development Community Protocol against Corruption, adopted on 14 August 2001 in Malawi, reaffirmed the need to eliminate the scourges of corruption through the adoption of effective preventive and deterrent measures and by strictly enforcing legislation against all types of corruption;

AND WHEREAS the Republic of South Africa desires to be in compliance with and to become Party to the United Nations Convention against Corruption adopted by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 31 October 2003;

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to unbundle the crime of corruption in terms of which, in addition to the creation of a general, broad and all-encompassing offence of corruption, various specific corrupt activities are criminalized, to commit an offence in terms of this Act, is guilty of an offence.

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Parliament of the Republic of South Africa, as follows:—

CHAPTER 3

INVESTIGATIONS REGARDING POSSESSION OF PROPERTY RELATING TO CORRUPT ACTIVITIES

22. Investigation regarding property relating to corrupt activities.—

(1) Whenever the National Director has reason to suspect that there may be in any building, receptacle or place, or in the possession, custody or control of any person any property which—

- (a) may have been used in the commission, or for the purpose of or in connection with the commission, of an offence under Chapter 2;
- (b) may have facilitated the commission of such an offence, or enabled any person or entity to commit such an offence, or provided financial or economic support to a person or entity in the commission of such an offence; or
- (c) may be the proceeds of such an offence, he or she may, prior to the institution of any asset forfeiture or criminal proceedings, under written authority direct that a particular Director of Public Prosecutions or a Special Director of Public Prosecutions, shall have the power to institute an investigation in terms of the provisions of Chapter 5 of the National Prosecuting Authority Act, 1998 (Act No. 32 of 1998), relating to such property.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1), a reference in the said Chapter 5 to—

- (a) the “head of the Directorate of Special Operations” or an “Investigating Director” shall be construed as a reference to a Director of Public Prosecutions or a Special Director of Public Prosecutions, as the case may be: Provided that for purposes of section 28 (2) (a) of the said Act, a Director of Public Prosecutions or Special Director of Public Prosecutions, may only designate a Deputy Director of Public Prosecutions; and
- (b) a “special investigator” shall be construed as to include a police official.

(3) If property seized under any power exercised under subsection (1) consists of cash or funds standing to the credit of a bank account, the Director of Public Prosecutions or a Special Director of Public Prosecutions who has instituted the investigation under that subsection shall cause the cash or funds to be paid into a banking account which shall be opened with any bank as defined in section 1 of the Banks Act, 1990 (Act No. 94 of 1990), and the Director of Public Prosecutions or a Special Director of Public Prosecutions shall forthwith report to the Financial Intelligence Centre the fact of the seizure of the cash or funds and the opening of the account.

23. Application for, and issuing of investigation direction in respect of possession of property disproportionate to a person's present or past known sources of income or assets.—(1) The National Director, or any person authorised in writing thereto by him or her (hereinafter referred to as the applicant), may apply to a judge in chambers for the issuing of an investigation direction in terms of subsection (3).

(2) An application referred to in subsection (1) must be in writing and must—

- (a) indicate the identity of the—
  - (i) applicant and, if known, the identity of the person who will conduct the investigation; and
  - (ii) person to be investigated (hereinafter referred to as the suspect);
- (b) specify the grounds referred to in subsection (3) on which the application is made;
- (c) contain full particulars of all the facts and circumstances alleged by the applicant in support of his or her application;
- (d) include the basis for believing that evidence relating to the ground on which the application is made will be obtained through the investigation direction;
- (e) indicate whether any previous application has been made for the issuing of an investigation direction in respect of the same suspect in the application and, if such previous application exists, must indicate the current status of that application; and
- (f) indicate the period for which the investigation is required.

(3) (a) A judge in chambers may upon an ex parte application made to him or her in terms of subsection (1), issue an investigation direction.

(b) An investigation direction may only be issued if the judge concerned is satisfied that—

- (i) there has been compliance with the provisions of subsection (2); and
- (ii) on the facts alleged in the application concerned, there are reasonable grounds to believe that—
  - (aa) a person—
    - (aaa) maintains a standard of living above that which is commensurate with his or her present or past known sources of income or assets; or
    - (bbb) is in control or possession of pecuniary resources or property disproportionate to his or her present or past known sources of income or assets; and
  - (bb) that person maintains such a standard of living through the commission of corrupt activities or the proceeds of unlawful activities or that such pecuniary resources or properties are instrumentalities of corrupt activities or the proceeds of unlawful activities; and
  - (cc) such investigation is likely to reveal information, documents or things which may afford proof that such a standard of living is maintained through the commission of corrupt activities or the proceeds of unlawful activities or that such pecuniary resources or properties are instrumentalities of corrupt activities or the proceeds of unlawful activities.

(c) An investigation direction—

- (i) must be in writing;
- (ii) must indicate the identity of the suspect and, if known, the person who will conduct the investigation;
- (iii) must specify the period for which it has been issued;
- (iv) may specify conditions of restriction relating to the conducting of the investigation; and
- (v) may be issued in respect of any place in the Republic.

(d) An application must be considered and an investigation direction issued without any notice to the suspect to whom the application applies and without hearing that suspect: Provided that where any previous investigation direction has been issued in respect of a suspect, the applicant may only apply for a further investigation direction in respect of that suspect on the same facts, after giving reasonable notice to the suspect concerned.

(e) A judge considering an application may require the applicant to furnish such further information as he or she deems necessary.

(4) If an investigation direction has been issued under subsection (3), the National Director or the person authorised thereto in the investigation direction, may, for the purposes of an investigation direction—

- (a) summon the suspect or any other person, specified in the investigation direction, who is believed to be able to furnish any information on the subject of the investigation or to have in his or her possession or under his or her control any property, book, document or other object relating to that subject, to appear before the National Director or the person so authorised, at a time and place specified in the summons, to be questioned or to produce that property, book, document or other object;
- (b) question that suspect or other person, under oath or affirmation administered by the National Director or the person so authorised, and examine or retain for further examination or for safe custody such property, book, document or other object; or
- (c) at any reasonable time and without prior notice or with such notice as he or she may deem appropriate, enter any premises where the suspect is or is suspected to be or any premises on or in which anything connected with that investigation is or is suspected to be, and may—
  - (i) inspect and search those premises, and there make such enquiries as he or she may deem necessary;
  - (ii) examine any property found on or in the premises which has a bearing or might have a bearing on the investigation in question, and request from the suspect or the owner or person in charge of the premises or from any person in whose possession or charge that property is, information regarding that property;
  - (iii) make copies of or take extracts from any book or document found on or in the premises which has a bearing or might have a bearing on the investigation in question, and request from any person suspected of having the necessary information, an explanation of any entry therein; or
  - (iv) seize, against the issue of a receipt, anything on or in the premises which has a bearing or might have a bearing on the investigation in question, or if he or she wishes to retain it for further examination or for safe custody:

Provided that any person from whom a book or document has been taken under paragraph (b) or (c) (iv), may, as long as it is in the possession of the person conducting the investigation, at his or her request be allowed, at his or her own expense and under the supervision of the person conducting the investigation, to make copies thereof or to take extracts therefrom at any reasonable time.

(5) (a) The law regarding privilege as applicable to a witness summoned to give evidence in a criminal case in a magistrate's court shall apply in relation to the questioning of a suspect or any person referred to in subsection (4): Provided that such a person shall not be entitled to refuse to answer any question upon the ground that the answer would tend to expose him or her to a criminal charge.

(b) No evidence regarding any questions and answers contemplated in paragraph (a) shall be admissible in any criminal proceedings, except in criminal proceedings where the person concerned stands trial on a charge contemplated in subsection (7) (b), or in section 319 (3) of the Criminal Procedure Act, 1955 (Act No. 56 of 1955).

(6) Subject to any directions, conditions or restrictions determined by the judge under subsection (3) (c) (iv), the provisions of sections 28 (1) (d), (2) to (10) and 29 (2), (7) (a), (9), (10) (b) and (11) of the National Prosecuting Authority Act, 1998 (Act No. 32 of 1998), relating to the conducting of an investigation and the execution of a warrant in terms of those provisions, apply, with the necessary changes, in respect of an investigation conducted in terms of subsection (4).

(7) Any person who—

(a) obstructs or hinders the person conducting the investigation or any other person in the performance of his or her functions in terms of this section; or

(b) when he or she is asked in terms of subsection (4) for information or an explanation relating to a matter within his or her knowledge, refuses or fails to give that information or explanation or gives information or an explanation which is false or misleading, knowing it to be false or misleading, shall be guilty of an offence.

CHAPTER 4 PRESUMPTIONS AND DEFENCES

24. Presumptions.—(1) Whenever a person is charged with an offence under Part 1 or 2, or section 21 (in so far as it relates to the aforementioned offences) of Chapter 2, proof that that person, or someone else at the instance of that person—

(a) accepted or agreed or offered to accept any gratification from; or

(b) gave or agreed or offered to give any gratification to,
any other person—

(i) who holds or seeks to obtain a contract, licence, permit, employment or anything whatsoever from a public body, private organisation, corporate body or other organisation or institution in which the person charged was serving as an official;

(ii) who is concerned, or who is likely to be concerned, in any proceedings or business transacted, pending or likely to be transacted before or by the person charged or public body, private organisation, corporate body, political party or other organisation or institution in which the person charged was serving as an official; or

(iii) who acts on behalf of a person contemplated in subparagraph (i) or (ii), and, if the State can further show that despite having taken reasonable steps, it was not able with reasonable certainty to link the acceptance of or agreement or offer to accept or the giving or agreement to give or offer to give the gratification to any lawful authority or excuse on the part of the person charged, and in the absence of evidence to the contrary which raises reasonable doubt, is sufficient evidence that the person charged accepted or agreed or offered to accept such gratification from that person or gave or agreed or offered to give such gratification to that person in order to act, in a manner—

(aa) that amounts to the—

(aaa) illegal, dishonest, unauthorised, incomplete, or biased; or

(bbb) misuse or selling of information or material acquired in the course of the, exercise, carrying out or performance of any powers, duties or functions arising out of a constitutional, statutory, contractual or any other legal obligation;

(bb) that amounts to—

(aaa) the abuse of a position of authority;

(bbb) a breach of trust; or

(ccc) the violation of a legal duty or a set of rules;

(cc) designed to achieve an unjustified result; or

(dd) that amounts to any other unauthorised or improper inducement to do or not to do anything.

(2) Whenever a public officer whose duties include the detection, investigation, prosecution or punishment of offenders, is charged with an offence involving the acceptance of a gratification, arising from—

(a) the arrest, detention, investigation or prosecution of any person for an alleged offence;

(b) the omission to arrest, detain or prosecute any person for an alleged offence; or

(c) the investigation of an alleged offence, it is not necessary to prove that the accused person believed that an offence contemplated in paragraphs (a) to (c) or any other offence had been committed.

25. Defences.—Whenever an accused person is charged with an offence under Part 1, 2, 3 or 4, or section 20 or 21 (in so far as it relates to the aforementioned offences) of Chapter 2, it is not a valid defence for that accused person to contend that he or she—

(a) did not have the power, right or opportunity to perform or not to perform the act in relation to which the gratification was given, accepted or offered;

(b) accepted or agreed or offered to accept, or gave or agreed or offered to give the gratification without intending to perform or not to perform the act in relation to which the gratification was given, accepted or offered; or

(c) failed to perform or not to perform the act in relation to which the gratification was given, accepted or offered.

CHAPTER 5
PENALTIES AND RELATED MATTERS

26. Penalties.—(1) Any person who is convicted of an offence referred to in—

- (a) Part 1, 2, 3 or 4, or section 18 of Chapter 2, is liable—
  - (i) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a High Court, to a fine or to imprisonment up to a period for imprisonment for life;
  - (ii) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a regional court, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 18 years; or
  - (iii) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a magistrate's court, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years;
- (b) section 17 (1), 19, 20, 23 (7) (a) or (b) or 34 (2), is liable—
  - (i) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a High Court or a regional court, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding 10 years; or
  - (ii) in the case of a sentence to be imposed by a magistrate's court, to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years; or
- (c) section 28 (6) (b), is liable to a fine of R250 000 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years.

(2) A person convicted of an offence referred to in section 21, is liable to the punishment laid down in subsection (1) for the offence which that person attempted or conspired to commit or aided, abetted, induced, instigated, instructed, commanded, counseled or procured another person to commit.

(3) In addition to any fine a court may impose in terms of subsection (1) or (2), the court may impose a fine equal to five times the value of the gratification involved in the offence.

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any law, a magistrate's court shall be competent to impose the penalty provided for in subsection (1) (a) (iii), (1) (c), or (3).

[Sub-s. (4) added by s. 35 of Act No. 66 of 2008.]

27. Authorisation by National Director, Deputy National Director or Director to institute proceedings in respect of certain offences.—The institution of a prosecution for an offence referred to in section 17 (1), 23 (7) (b) or 34 (2), must be authorised in writing by the National Director, a Deputy National Director of Public Prosecutions or the Director of Public Prosecutions concerned and only after the person concerned has been afforded a reasonable opportunity by the investigating or prosecuting authority, as the case may be, to explain, whether personally or through a legal representative—

- (a) in the case of section 17 (1), how he or she acquired the private interest concerned;
- (b) in the case of section 23 (7) (b), how he or she acquired the property or resources concerned; or
- (c) in the case of section 34 (2), why he or she failed to report in terms of section 34 (2).

28. Endorsement of Register.—(1) (a) A court convicting a person of an offence contemplated in section 12 or 13, may, in addition to imposing any sentence contemplated in section 26, issue an order that—

- (i) the particulars of the convicted person;

- (ii) the conviction and sentence; and
- (iii) any other order of the court consequent thereupon,

be endorsed on the Register.

(b) If the person so convicted is an enterprise, the court may also issue an order that—

- (i) the particulars of that enterprise;
- (ii) the particulars of any partner, manager, director or other person, who wholly or partly exercises or may exercise control over that enterprise and who was involved in the offence concerned or who knows or ought reasonably to have known or suspected that the enterprise committed the offence concerned; and
- (iii) the conviction, sentence and any other order of the court consequent thereupon,

be endorsed on the Register.

(c) The court may also issue an order contemplated in paragraph (a) in respect of—

- (i) any other enterprise owned or controlled by the person so convicted; or
- (ii) the particulars of any partner, manager, director or other person, who wholly or partly exercises or may exercise control over such other enterprise, and which—

- (aa) enterprise, partner, manager, director or other person was involved in the offence concerned; or
- (bb) partner, manager, director or other person knew or ought reasonably to have known or suspected that such other enterprise was involved in the offence concerned.

(d) Whenever the Register is endorsed as contemplated in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), the endorsement applies, unless the court directs otherwise, to every enterprise to be established in the future, and which enterprise will be wholly or partly controlled or owned by the person or enterprise so convicted or endorsed, and the Registrar must, in respect of every such enterprise, endorse the Register accordingly.

(2) Where a court has issued an order under subsection (1), the registrar or clerk of such court must forthwith forward the court order to the Registrar and the Registrar must forthwith endorse the Register accordingly.

(3) (a) Where the Register has been endorsed in terms of subsection (2), in addition to any other legal action, the following restrictions may or must, as the case may be, be imposed;

- (i) The National Treasury may terminate any agreement with the person or enterprise referred to in subsection (1) (a) or (b): Provided that—
  - (aa) in considering the termination of an agreement, the National Treasury must take into account, among others, the following factors, namely—
    - (aaa) the extent and duration of the agreement concerned;
    - (bbb) whether it is likely to conclude a similar agreement with another person or enterprise within a specific time frame;
    - (ccc) the extent to which the agreement has been executed;

- (ddd) the urgency of the services to be delivered or supplied in terms of the agreement;
  - (eee) whether extreme costs will follow such termination; and
  - (fff) any other factor which, in the opinion of the National Treasury, may impact on the termination of the agreement; and
- (bb) if that agreement involves any purchasing authority or Government Department, such restriction may only be imposed after consultation with the purchasing authority or Government Department concerned;
- (ii) the National Treasury must determine the period (which period may not be less than five years or more than 10 years) for which the particulars of the convicted person or the enterprise referred to in subsection (1) (a), (b), (c) or (d) must remain in the Register and during such period no offer in respect of any agreement from a person or enterprise referred to in that subsection may be considered by the National Treasury; or
- (iii) during the period determined in subparagraph (ii), the National Treasury, the purchasing authority or any Government Department must—
- (aa) ignore any offer tendered by a person or enterprise referred to in subsection (1) (a), (b), (c) or (d); or
  - (bb) disqualify any person or enterprise referred to subsection (1) (a), (b), (c) or (d), from making any offer or obtaining any agreement relating to the procurement of a specific supply or service.

(b) A restriction imposed under paragraph (a) only comes into effect after any appeal against the conviction or sentence or both has been finalised by the court: Provided that if the appeal court sets aside, varies or amends the order referred to in subsection (1), the National Treasury must, if necessary, amend the restrictions imposed under paragraph (a) accordingly.

(c) Where the National Treasury has terminated an agreement in terms of paragraph (a) (i), it may, in addition to any other legal remedy, recover from the person or enterprise any damages—

- (i) incurred or sustained by the State as a result of the tender process or the conclusion of the agreement; or
- (ii) which the State may suffer by having to make less favourable arrangements thereafter.

(4) The National Treasury—

- (a) may at any time vary or rescind any restriction imposed under subsection (3) (a) (i) or (ii); and
- (b) must, when the period determined in terms of subsection (3) (a) (ii) expires, remove the particulars of the person or enterprise concerned, from the Register.

(5) When the National Treasury imposes a restriction under subsection (3) (a) (i) or (ii), or amends or rescinds such a restriction, it must within 14 days in writing notify—

- (a) the person whose particulars have been so endorsed;
- (b) any purchasing authority on which it may decide; and
- (c) all Government departments, of any resolution or decision relative to such restriction or the amendment or rescinding thereof, and request such authorities and departments to take similar steps.

(6) (a) Any person whose particulars, conviction and sentence have been endorsed on the Register as contemplated in this section and who has been notified as contemplated in subsection (5) (a), must in any subsequent agreement or tender process involving the State, disclose such endorsement, conviction and sentence.

(b) Any person who fails to comply with paragraph (a), is guilty of an offence.

(7) For purposes of this section—

- (a) “agreement” includes an agreement to procure and supply services, to arrange the hiring or letting of anything or the acquisition or granting of any right for or on behalf of the State;
- (b) “enterprise” includes any individual, partnership, corporation, association, or other juristic person or legal entity, and any union or group of individuals associated in fact, although not a juristic person or legal entity;
- (c) “Registrar” means the Registrar of the Register designated under section 30; and
- (d) “Register” means the Register established under section 29.

CHAPTER 6 REGISTER FOR TENDER DEFAULTERS

29. Establishment of Register.—Within six months after the commencement of this Chapter, the Minister of Finance must establish a register, to be known as the Register for Tender Defaulters, within the Office of the National Treasury.

30. Designation of Registrar.—The Minister of Finance must designate a fit and proper person, with due regard to his or her experience, conscientiousness and integrity, as Registrar.

31. Powers, duties and functions of Registrar.—(1) The Registrar must, subject to the provisions of section 28 and this Chapter, exercise and perform his or her powers, duties and functions subject to the control and directions of the National Treasury.

(2) The Registrar must—

- (a) maintain the Register;
- (b) manage the Office of the Registrar; and
- (c) carry out the duties and perform the functions assigned to him or her by section 28, this Chapter or the National Treasury or any other law.

32. Access to Register.—The Register is open to the public as prescribed.

33. Regulations pertaining to Register.—(1) The Minister of Finance may, in consultation with the Minister responsible for the administration of justice, make regulations relating to—

- (a) the maintenance and management of the Register, the particulars to be entered in such Register, the manner in which such particulars must be recorded and the period for which the information in the Register must be retained;
- (b) access to information contained in the Register;
- (c) the safe-keeping and disposal of records; or

- (d) any other matter which the Minister may consider necessary to prescribe in order to achieve the objects of section 28 and this Chapter.

(2) Regulations made in terms of subsection (1) may, in respect of any contravention thereof or failure to comply therewith, prescribe as a penalty a fine or imprisonment for a period not exceeding 12 months.

CHAPTER 7 MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

34. Duty to report corrupt transactions.—(1) Any person who holds a position of authority and who knows or ought reasonably to have known or suspected that any other person has committed—

- (a) an offence under Part 1, 2, 3 or 4, or section 20 or 21 (in so far as it relates to the aforementioned offences) of Chapter 2; or
- (b) the offence of theft, fraud, extortion, forgery or uttering a forged document, involving an amount of R100 000 or more, must report such knowledge or suspicion or cause such knowledge or suspicion to be reported to the police official in the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation referred to in section 17C of the South African Police Service Act, 1995, (Act No. 68 of 1995).

[Sub-s. (1) substituted by s. 21 of Act No. 10 of 2012.]

(2) Subject to the provisions of section 37 (2), any person who fails to comply with subsection (1), is guilty of an offence.

(Date of commencement of sub-s. (2): 31 July, 2004.)

(3) (a) Upon receipt of a report referred to in subsection (1), the police official concerned must take down the report in the manner directed by the National Head of the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation, appointed in terms of section 17C (2) (a) of the South African Police Service Act, 1995, (Act No. 68 of 1995), and forthwith provide the person who made the report with an acknowledgment of receipt of such report.

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 21 of Act No. 10 of 2012.]

(b) The National Head of the Directorate for Priority Crime Investigation, must within three months of the commencement of the South African Police Service Amendment Act, 2012, publish the directions contemplated in paragraph (a) in the Gazette, during which period any existing notice issued in terms of the Act shall remain in force.

[Para. (b) substituted by s. 21 of Act No. 10 of 2012.]

(c) Any direction issued under paragraph (b), must be tabled in Parliament before publication thereof in the Gazette.

(4) For purposes of subsection (1) the following persons hold a position of authority, namely—

- (a) the Director-General or head, or equivalent officer, of a national or provincial department;
- (b) in the case of a municipality, the municipal manager appointed in terms of section 82 of the Local Government: Municipal Structures Act, 1998 (Act No. 117 of 1998);
- (c) any public officer in the Senior Management Service of a public body;
- (d) any head, rector or principal of a tertiary institution;

- (e) the manager, secretary or a director of a company as defined in the Companies Act, 1973 (Act No. 61 of 1973), and includes a member of a close corporation as defined in the Close Corporations Act, 1984 (Act No. 69 of 1984);
- (f) the executive manager of any bank or other financial institution;
- (g) any partner in a partnership;
- (h) any person who has been appointed as chief executive officer or an equivalent officer of any agency, authority, board, commission, committee, corporation, council, department, entity, financial institution, foundation, fund, institute, service, or any other institution or organisation, whether established by legislation, contract or any other legal means;
- (i) any other person who is responsible for the overall management and control of the business of an employer; or
- (j) any person contemplated in paragraphs (a) to (i), who has been appointed in an acting or temporary capacity.

35. Extraterritorial jurisdiction.—(1) Even if the act alleged to constitute an offence under this Act occurred outside the Republic, a court of the Republic shall, regardless of whether or not the act constitutes an offence at the place of its commission, have jurisdiction in respect of that offence if the person to be charged—

- (a) is a citizen of the Republic;
- (b) is ordinarily resident in the Republic;
- (c) was arrested in the territory of the Republic, or in its territorial waters or on board a ship or aircraft registered or required to be registered in the Republic at the time the offence was committed;
- (d) is a company, incorporated or registered as such under any law, in the Republic; or
- (e) any body of persons, corporate or unincorporated, in the Republic.

(2) Any act alleged to constitute an offence under this Act and which is committed outside the Republic by a person, other than a person contemplated in subsection (1), shall, regardless of whether or not the act constitutes an offence or not at the place of its commission, be deemed to have been committed also in the Republic if that—

- (a) act affects or is intended to affect a public body, a business or any other person in the Republic;
- (b) person is found to be in South Africa; and
- (c) person is for one or other reason not extradited by South Africa or if there is no application to extradite that person.

(3) Any offence committed in a country outside the Republic as contemplated in subsection (1) or (2), is, for the purpose of determining the jurisdiction of a court to try the offence, deemed to have been committed—

- (a) at the place where the accused is ordinarily resident; or
- (b) at the accused person's principal place of business.

(4) Where a person is charged with conspiracy or incitement to commit an offence or as an accessory after the offence, the offence is deemed to have been committed not only at the place where the act was committed, but also at every place where the conspirator, inciter or accessory acted or, in case of an omission, should have acted.

36. Repeal and amendment of laws and transitional provisions.—(1) The laws specified in the Schedule are repealed or amended to the extent indicated in that Schedule.

(2) All criminal proceedings which immediately prior to the commencement of this Act were instituted in terms of the provisions of the Corruption Act, 1992 (Act No. 94 of 1992), and which proceedings have not been concluded before the commencement of this Act, shall be continued and concluded, in all respects, as if this Act had not been passed.

(3) An investigation or prosecution or other legal proceedings, in respect of conduct which would have constituted an offence under the Corruption Act, 1992, and which occurred after the commencement of that Act but before the commencement of this Act, may be concluded, instituted and continued as if this Act had not been passed.

(4) Notwithstanding the repeal or amendment of any provision of any law by this Act, such provision shall, for the purpose of the disposal of any investigation, prosecution or any criminal or legal proceedings contemplated in subsection (2) or (3), remain in force as if such provision had not been repealed or amended.

37. Short title and commencement.—(1) This Act is called the Prevention and Combating of Corrupt Activities Act, 2004, and shall, subject to subsection (2), come into operation on 27 April 2004 or on such earlier date as the President may determine by proclamation in the Gazette.

(2) Section 34 (2) shall come into operation on 31 July 2004.
